Silk From Sow's Ear

out of business.

Edward Maher, N. A. M. vice-president in charge of public relations, says he doubts that education can make a silk purse out of a sow's ear. He suggests sult from the fact that they have created the impression that the transformation can be made.

The N. A. M. vice-president says:

"The American people have been allowed to gain the impression that. through education, any one can become a distinguished scientist, a brilliant physician or an erudite philosopher.

"In no other country in the world -with the exception of Soviet Russia -is there more blind faith in the power of education to overcome an inherent lack of mental equipment—the basic power to think. FT. MILL, S. C. (A) - A 6-year-old boy was electrocuted in his bed here early Friday by an electrical device his father had rigged up to control bed wetting.

York County Coroner A. Y Leslie Jr. said the father, W. J. Keener, found the badly burned body of the youngster, James Lester Keener, in the bed. A younger sister sleeping in the bed was uninjured.

Leslie said the father had strung three hair-thin wires across the middle of the bed, and attached them to a regular 110-volt wall socket.

The coroner theorized that the sister, Betty Jean, wet the bed causing a minor shock to the boy who rolled over, turned back the sheet over which the wires were strung, and made contact with a live wire and one that was grounded. Leslie gunted the father as used on the bed before. Leslie said it was similar to devices which are sold on the market but which use low voltage and transformers.

LSUNO Quiet After Stern Warning Told

NEW ORLEANS (AP) - Warning against racial outbreaks brought an atmosphere of quiet Friday on the campus of Louisiana State University in New Orleans after several days of incidents protesting Negro students.

The warning signs of "No Loiterand "Quiet Zone" went up and Dean Homer Hitt said the situation was very quiet and L.S.U. was trying to keep it so.

As an aftermath of the flying of Ku Klux Klan banners and the posting of signs taunting Negro students, groups of white students Friday began circulating petitions on opposing sides of the racial is-One petition opposed admission

Bed Control Device Kills Six-Year-Old

FT. MILL, S. C. (A) - A 6-year-old boy was electrocuted in his bed here early Friday by an electrical device his father had rigged up to control bed wetting.

York County Coroner A. Y Leslie Jr. said the father, W. J. Keener, found the badly burned body of the youngster, James Lester Keener, in the bed. A younger sister sleeping in the bed was uninjured. Leslie said the father had strung three hair-thin wires across the middle of the bed, and attached them to a regular 110-volt wall socket. The coroner theorized that the sister, Betty Jean, wet the bed causing a minor shock to

Hunting Permitted On Olin Forest

The primary purpose in the ownership of industrial forest land is growing repeated crops of high quality timber products. Intensive forest management also furnishes a suitable habitat for many types of forest game.

Olin Forests in Ouachita Parish, mainly in Wards 8 and 9, have long been a favorite area for local hunters. As in past years, Olin Mathieson places no restrictions on outdoor recreation on these lands. Hunting, in accordance with game law regulations, is permitted.
